

1:1 SEN Teaching Assistant

Do you have the skills, passion and creativity to engage children and help them achieve their potential?

We are looking to appoint a calm, caring and supportive Teaching Assistant who will be able to offer excellent support to a Key Stage 2 child with an Educational Health Care Plan. You will be working with an excellent team of teachers and teaching assistants. We are looking for a team player, who is flexible, positive and has a proactive approach to developing children's learning.

The position is for 27.5 hours per week, 5 days per week, based on 39 weeks per year. The position is a temporary contract until 31 August 2022.

Ideally, the successful candidate will:

- have primary school experience of working alongside pupils with additional needs
- demonstrate that they can use their own initiative at times
- be able to support children with positive behaviour strategies
- have excellent communication skills
- be resilient and form strong, positive relationships with children, staff and parents
- be an enthusiastic role model.

We are a warm and friendly school and we invite you to call the school to discuss the position.
