Dear Mr. Clarke,

I was recently lucky enough to be able to travel from London to York on the Flying Scotsman steam train.

As we approached Little Bytham I was telling the other people in the carriage that as a child I had attended Little Bytham School and as the track ran alongside the school it was very much part of my childhood. Can you imagine my surprise that as we passed your School much to the delight of all the passengers the children were outside waving and cheering as the train passed by, which was such a wonderful moment in time.

I am, therefore, writing to express my thanks and appreciation to you and the children for making a memorable day even more special.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. J. Flynn
