

Communication and Language

We will practise our story language through our focus text 'Handa's Surprise', this time focussing on sequential and repetitive language. We will practise retelling the story using puppets and props, using expression to engage the audience. We will then orally build our own sentences with our ideas to adapt and innovate this story.

Our focus for general communication this term will be focussing on listening to others before

Physical Development

This term we will be doing the mini-olympics. We will practise ball throwing and catching, jumping and running skills using lots of different equipment. We will work on developing our accuracy with all of these tasks, trying to beat our latest score or time. This will be outside, weather

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

This term we will continue to explore and discuss zones of regulation, exploring our emotions further and increasing our vocabulary around feelings. We will also continue our Jigsaw PSHE programme discussing relationships, families and stronger

Mathematics

This term we will start to work with numbers to 20, making them and recognising patterns.

We will also start to add and take away, double, share and groups objects. We will also explore

Around the World

Expressive Arts and Design

Our art work will reflect our topic this term, with art inspired by animals, countries and different climates around the world. We will

Understanding the World

This term we will learn about different countries around the world, celebrate different foods and think about the animals that live in these places. We will have visitors to come in and talk to us about countries around the world.

Literacy

Phonics

We will continue our scheme Read Write Inc, focussing on reading books, writing sentences, and we will begin to edit and correct work.

We will also continue to send reading books home, this time 2 a week, as well as library books -please record all reading on the Boom app. Children will receive stickers on their bookmarks every 5 reads. Just a quick reminder that we cannot issue a new book if the old book has not been returned.

Our focus text this term will be "Handa's Surprise". We will be learning to repeat the story by heart, and we will also
